

FAIRFIELD COUNTY DOUBLES QUOTA

NEARLY ALL OF DISTRICTS HEARD FROM.

MORE THAN EIGHTEEN THOUSAND DOLLARS RAISED DURING THE WEEK.

One of the greatest campaigns that has ever been waged in Fairfield county has just ended with a complete victory. If every section of the United States had responded as liberally to the call for funds for the American Red Cross, three hundred millions of dollars would have been subscribed. This county was asked for seven thousand dollars. The reply was more than eighteen thousand dollars and every dollar of it was given freely and without a murmur.

Table with columns: School District, Apportionment, Amount Raised. Lists districts from No. 1 to No. 34, including Winnsboro Town and Mills, with their respective amounts.

TOTALS $10410.00 $21462.30

The entire quota for the county was $7,000.00. The apportionment by districts gives it at a much larger figure. This came about on account of the figures being made larger so that the excess in certain districts might make up any lacking in others.

LOCAL CHAPTER OF RED CROSS ACKNOWLEDGES DONATION.

The Fairfield Chapter, A. R. C., acknowledges receipt of $20.90 from L. Landecker, who has made this donation for the special use of the Local Chapter. The amount represents one per cent of the cash receipts of the cash receipts of the store for one week. This donation is highly appreciated by all the members of the chapter.

W. D. Douglas, Chairman, Fairfield Chapter, A. R. C.

SCHOOL TERM APPROACHES END

CONGRESSMAN STEVENSON WILL MAKE ADDRESS.

GRADUATING CLASS LOOKING FORWARD TO EXERCISES—PAGEANT BY PUPILS

- Commencement Program
School closes June 7th.
Class exercises, Monday night June 10.
Graduating exercises, June 11.
Patriotic Pageant, June 12.

Arrangements for the closing exercises of Mt. Zion Institute have been about completed, and the pupils of the school are looking forward with pleasant anticipations to the vacation days, now rapidly approaching. The graduating class, numbering seven, have recently sent out the invitations to their out-of-town friends—it being understood that every body living in town is cordially invited to be present without any formal invitation. The class will have its history and future told at the class exercises Monday night and on Tuesday night, following, the regular graduating exercises will be held. Congressman Stevenson has accepted an invitation to be present and address the class and community on any subject which he deems appropriate. Mr. Stevenson is an able speaker and his presence will greatly enhance the pleasure of the occasion. Mr. W. D. Douglas, the chairman of the Board of Education, will deliver the certificates.

On Wednesday night, June 12, "America," a patriotic pioneer pageant will be presented under the direction of two of the teachers, Mrs. Dees and Miss Isabel Gooding. The pageant sets forth in a clear and attractive way the westward march of civilization from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the time of Columbus to the present day. A number of Carolina's famous sons are introduced and also the founder of Winnsboro. About 75 children and young people take parts in the pageant and the indications are that it will prove most enjoyable. On account of some expense attached to the production of the pageant, a small admission fee will be charged. All of the other exercises incident to the closing of school will, of course, be free.

The exercises will be held on an out-door stage which is to be erected immediately in front of the school building. The light wires running through the street nearby will be tapped, and the stage well illuminated. By having the exercises outdoors, sufficient room is secured to accommodate any audience. The heat will not be disagreeable. While it is more difficult to speak in the open than in a building, the fact that the stage will be built in front of and against the school house insures audibility over a large area. The school building will reflect the sound of the voice, acting somewhat as a sounding board, and it is thought that everybody in the audience will be enabled to hear.

The people of the town and community are all invited to be present at all of the exercises. While some formal invitations have been sent out, the exercises of course are public, are a part of the life of the community, and it is hoped that all who can will be present.

AUCTION SALE OF MEAT FOR RED CROSS.

Mr. W. S. Forbes, of Richmond, Va., who is well known here in a business way through his representative, Mr. W. H. Flenniken, wrote Mr. Flenniken that he had contributed liberally to the Red Cross in the first go-round, and that in this second or last call he had given six thousand dollars. He instructed Mr. Flenniken to sell a box of bacon to the highest bidder and donate the proceeds to the Red Cross. Now this sale will be made Friday at 11 o'clock in front of the Court House, and we hope friends of the Red Cross will make the box of bacon realize a nice amount, not only for the Red Cross, but as a compliment to Mr. Forbes' liberality. Mr. Ernest Gladden and another will be the auctioneers.

HONOR ROLL FAIRFIELD COUNTY

NAMES OF SUBSCRIBERS TO RED CROSS FUND.

LIST OF WHICH COUNTY MAY BE JUSTLY PROUD—OTHERS TO FOLLOW NEXT WEEK.

The name of every man who gave liberally of his means to the Red Cross War Fund raised last week should be inscribed on some fitting tablet and kept as an honor roll for the county. These men and women are doing a noble work and should be commended when they are willing to give their dollars—the last of them if necessary—to support the soldiers across the seas.

Below we are publishing the names of all those who contributed to the Red Cross War Fund together with the amount each person contributed. These names and amounts are items of news that are of great importance. The general public desires to know and they should know just what men and women in the county are strictly standing by the government at this time. These names will be published by districts, and it will be necessary to print a list of the names of some districts in later issues of the paper as it is both impossible to get all of the names at the present time or to find space for them all even if we had them at hand. However, when the last district's list is published it will contain the entire list of contributors and none will be left out. In this issue we are beginning with those in Winnsboro district, as these names are the easiest to secure at the present time.

Through a proclamation published elsewhere in this issue, the President of the United States calls on the youth of the United States who have become twenty-one since the fifth of last June to register on the fifth of June, which comes on Wednesday of next week. The Local Board has arranged for seven places of registration together with the registrars as follows:

Winnsboro Clerk of Local Board
It is especially urged that all men who have become of age since the fifth of June of last year shall register. Any person who for any reason failed through ignorance or otherwise to register last year should register at this time and escape arrest. Those of registering age should apply to the nearest point of registration.

COLORED SUMMER SCHOOL.

The colored Summer School will begin June 3rd, and last ten days at the Colored Graded School Building. Mr. W. W. Turner, County Superintendent of Education has endorsed the same, and every colored teacher expecting to teach in the county must attend some summer school. The times demand better services if you expect better pay. "Poor service, poor pay." C. H. Anderson, Pres.
Fairfield County Colored Teachers Association.

GREAT MEETINGS FOR RED CROSS

ALL WELL ATTENDED AND MUCH INTEREST SHOWN.

PEOPLE RESPOND LIBERALLY—RED CROSS CAMPAIGN ONE OF EDUCATION.

During the past week a number of meetings have been held over the county in the interest of the Red Cross War Fund campaign, and all of them have been well attended and a great deal of interest shown by the people on all sides. There is every reason to believe that these meetings are proving of great value to the people from an educational standpoint as they are giving information along the lines of what the Red Cross is doing and the great needs of the organization. From the result wherever a meeting was held it is the general opinion that if the war continues and one or two more such campaigns are held the people will have become so well informed on the needs of the Red Cross that all that will be needed will be simply to state that so much money is needed and the county will give it at once without any special effort being made. The people are realizing that the Red Cross is their Red Cross and that it is necessary that they support it.

Meetings were held at Jenkinsville, Monticello, Salem, Lebanon, Greenbrier, Cool Branch, White Oak, Woodward, Mitford, and Blairs. Speakers from Winnsboro were sent to all of these places. The writer attended the meeting at Mitford and Blairs and is in position to say from first hand knowledge that the people of these sections are wide awake to the importance of the situation. At Mitford one of the most attentive audiences of the county listened to addresses by Messrs. Wolling and Seawell, at the conclusion of which the amount asked of the district was more than subscribed and there were still a large number of people to be seen.

Another of the splendid meetings was the one held at Blairs Saturday afternoon. The meeting was held in the store of the Blair-Frazier Company, and was attended by a large crowd of the people of that section. Four addresses of unusual force were delivered. The speakers in order, were: Prof. Rucker of the University faculty, Mr. Kimball, an attorney of Columbia, Mr. Seawell, editor of The News and Herald, and Mr. J. W. Hanahan, of Winnsboro. At the conclusion of these speeches subscriptions were taken. The quota asked from the district was three hundred dollars. Within a few minutes more than double that amount had been raised. The total reported from that one meeting alone was six hundred and eighty-eight dollars. Quite a good deal more was raised after the meeting and later reported to the central committee.
